Procedure for Reinstatement of Credential

- A. Individuals whose credential(s) is revoked must do the following to reinstate their credential(s):
1. Submit an "Intent to Reinstate Credential Application" form to the Recertification (Maintenance of Certification) Division of AHIMA;
 2. Remit the $250 Reinstatement fee (per credential) with the application;
 3. Obtain the required number of continuing education units within the Reinstatement period ending one year following your original two-year recertification cycle end date;
 4. Complete the current year's coding self-review (for coding credentials only).
- B. Continuing Education Units (CEUs) requirements for single credential (with $250 fee)

If You Have A(n)...	You Must Earn...
CCA, CCS, CCS-P	20 CEUs **
Physician Coding Specialist (PCS)*	20 CEUs **

- C. For a complete listing of CEU qualifying activities, please see the Recertification Guide on our website at <http://www.ahima.org/certification/recertification.aspx>
- D. A Reinstatement candidate whose credential is reinstated and their credential is returned to ACTIVE status will be officially notified by the AHIMA Recertification (Maintenance of Certification) Division that Reinstatement requirements have been met. However, a new certificate will not be issued nor will a new certification number be issued. Upon official notification, the individual will enter the subsequent two-year maintenance of certification cycle.
- E. Individuals whose credential has been Revoked must submit the appropriate exam application and exam fee to retest. These individuals are not eligible to submit the Intent to Reinstate Credential application. These candidates must retake the exam. The exam applications can be located online at ahima.org/certification and select Types of Credential. You can either apply and pay online or printout the application and mail it with payment to AHIMA.
- F. Individuals applying to retake the RHIA or RHIT exam must indicate on their exam application that their "credential was previously revoked", so they won't be required to submit a college transcript to be eligible for the exam. All online applicant must contact us by submitting a customer support request or by calling our Customer Relations Team at (800) 335-5535 and inform us of that your credential was revoked in order to bypass the transcript requirements.
- G. Upon passing the exam you will be assigned a new certification number and a new certificate will be mailed to you.
