Empowerment

"One of the best things about AHIMA membership is the access to education and being a part of a professional community. We can network and talk about our experiences. I discovered they have lots of good articles about leadership and management. AHIMA has influenced me by making me aware of career opportunities in analytics and informatics, as well as the wide variety of leadership roles available to us."

– Hugh Brown, RHIA

"AHIMA membership provides a lot of exposure. It has helped me in my profession as far as keeping me abreast of different events...and keeping me engaged in the AHIMA community with other members across the nation. I met a lot of people just going to the conferences, and I've kept those professional relationships. We're communicating through Engage or [connecting] on other levels."

– Barbara Kennedy, RHIT
