

Candidate for AHIMA's Council for Excellence in Education (CEE)

Marissa Lajaunie MBA, RHIA

Award-winning Health Information Management (HIM) educator, RHIA practitioner, leader, and doctoral student committed to advancing excellence in HIM education, preparing future professionals, and supporting innovation and leadership across the evolving healthcare landscape.

LEADERSHIP

- 📌 15 + years in HIM operations
- 🌐 Professional Practice Experience (PPE) Preceptor – 4 years
- 📁 Management Internship Director – 9 years
- 👩 Faculty Advisor for Student Organization – 12 years
- 🏆 AHIMA Faculty Badge Mentor
- 🖋️ Author & peer reviewer for HIM articles & textbooks

SERVICE

- 🌟 17-Year RHIA Credentialed AHIMA Member
- 📋 AHIMA CEE Educational Programming & CourseShare Workgroups
- 👤 LHIMA Secretary/Treasurer, Education Director, Communications Director & State Convention Chair
- 🌞 Recipient of LHIMA Outstanding Volunteer Award
- 🧑 Unitech Training Academy Advisory Board Member
- 🗣️ Presenter at national educational conferences

EDUCATION

- 🎓 10 + years experience in higher education
- 👩 Doctoral student in Educational Leadership (Higher Education Concentration)
- 🏆 Recipient of top university honor for Teaching Excellence
- 🏆 Recipient of the College of Nursing & Health Sciences Teaching Excellence Award
- 📖 Certified Quality Matters Course Designer, Course Reviewer, and Online Teacher

INNOVATION

- 💡 Leader for a University Faculty Learning Community (FLC)
- 🤖 Leader in ethical AI integration and development of faculty AI resources
- 🔄 Creator of a healthcare interprofessional course
- 🧑 Supporter of Transparency in Learning & Teaching (TILT) initiatives
- 🖥️ Nationally recognized presenter on innovative tools that enhance student engagement and learning experiences

WHY ME?

- Experienced educator committed to advancing excellence in HIM education, workforce readiness, and student success
- Passionate about innovation and empowering HIM professionals to thrive in an ever-changing healthcare environment
- Collaborative leader dedicated to strengthening curriculum, supporting educators and students, and shaping the future of the HIM profession through leadership and service

Vote Marissa Lajaunie for CEE - Supporting Students, Educators & the Future HIM Workforce